Report This was my first outing in over eighteen months, so to leave home after the recent heat wave in light drizzle was not what I expected. After arriving at Bisley it was still overcast and windy and it took most of the day for the sun and heat to return. It was nice to see many old faces, many still using the shooters excuse book in the prevailing conditions - I like pages seven to nine!

Sixteen Greater London shooters took part in a shared event with Sussex and Berkshire, with Alan Piper taking the final crown as county champion and Lee Wakefield a worthy runner-up.
