Report

An excellent turnout at the rejuvenated Bisley Gun Club and praise goes to the 'new' team's efforts. New traps gave faultless birds only affected by the variable wind, part of the Bisley experience.

Some 13 squads with 13 shooters from Greater London, overall High Gun of the day and top G/L shooter was Lee Wakefield on 100/295, with Adrian Balham a close runner-up on 99/292. The Veteran winner was Bill Watt and the Lady Winner Joanne Gates.

For me, after quite a break, it was a pleasure to meet up with old acquaintances and hopefully to see some of the old Bisley Gun Club atmosphere returning – not the biggest, but the best DTL Club in the South East.
