A huge turn out for the first Greater London County event of 2009, with 28 shooters, with many new participants taking part in this county event. The weather was better for Saturday shooters, Sunday having a mix of strong winds and heavy showers. Tim Connolly set the standard of 96 in the early afternoon, although new Skeet manager Steve Roberts was not to be out done and on the last squad of the day equalled the score. A shoot off was called for to separate them. Steve still taking sips from his mug of tea between stands looked very calm, he took an early advantage as Tim dropped two targets. Stand six Steve dropped two so all square, onto the stand seven, Tim Dropped a high bird. The pressure on Steve but he had no more Tea to distract him and finished of straight on stand seven to take the County Championship.

Louis Mondesir was the County Junior, Colin Ross County Veteran, Trudy Johnston County Lady and Sophie Weller County Colt, congratulations to all the winners. Thank you to NCSC Bisley for hosting the event.

Andre Mondesir presents fellow English Skeet team manager Steve Roberts with the Champions Trophy.
