A relatively quiet day at Bisley Gun Club, with a total entry of 29 shooters with 7 from Greater London.

The day started off with a chilly wind but slowly the sun came out and apart from the welcome warmth the visibility improved greatly. It was good to see some familiar faces and the Club put on a very good selection of targets,

Hopefully as we come out of full lock down and the effects of the Covid-19 virus we can look forward to returning to what was 'normal'.

Peter Carsons.
