5. CHAIRMANS REPORT

The Chairman gave a short report on the Regions activities and congratulated shooters who had competed and been successful in their disciplines. He also thanked the Officers, County Representatives and Team Managers who collectively form the North Region Committee for all their hard work and commitment.

A copy of the report will be on the website.

6. TREASURERS REPORT

A copy of the balance sheet was given to all attendees to peruse. A copy will be posted on the website.

Mr Rowbottom asked why levies were down, the reply was the grounds are too far apart for people to attend. Mr Clarey said this was why skeet was dying.

7. CPSA REPORT

Mr Parker, CEO from HQ gave an update on what was happening at HQ Below are a few items:-

- . Membership was down due to people deciding not to shoot competitions so didn't need the Insurance!
- . Balance the budget, staff redundancies, advertising etc
- . 2020 budget – give more to competitions, technology, colts/juniors. Putting scholarship Programme together. Get sponsorship.
- . 2020 DTL Championship to be held at Bywell. Sporting at Churchills
- . Legal issues – plastic to be banned, being overtaken by lead. Waitrose won't buy any game That has been shot with lead.

Paul Foster asked how sponsorship was going. The answer very slowly, social media doesn't Help.

Phil Rowbottom asked about Premier Plus grounds who don't hold selection shoots etc. – why not restructure legislation.

Nigel Chapman said grounds found it hard to get layouts consistent, don't hold competitions.

Phil Rowbottom said programme shoots, supervets in the year you are 66 (2019), so supervet (2020).
