South East Region's Intercounties Championship

Discipline: Olympic Skeet

Date: August 24th 2014

Venue: NCSC

The South East Region Intercounties Olympic Skeet Championship took place at the NCSC Bisley on the 24th August.

Surrey were the only county to enter a full team but there was competitors from Greater London, Kent, Berkshire, Hertfordshire and Essex taking part as well.

The weather was kind for the 21 shooters that day with near perfect shooting conditions, just a light wind getting up in the afternoon.

Surrey came out on top with a score of 408x500. David Dale, Tom Skinner and Phil Butcher were neck and neck for the first three rounds, but on the last round David, with a lot of luck on his side (lucky the referee had good eyesight) managed to pull ahead and win the high gun trophy on 93, with Tom Skinner runner up on 92 and Phil Butcher from Greater London taking the Veterans on 90.

Alison Nicol from Hertfordshire was the Lady Champion.

In the Junior category Josh Baxter from Surrey took high gun with a near perfect 24 on his last round,

Jack Goodhew from Kent won the colts, Jack has just made the change to Olympic Skeet after having had a lot of success in English Skeet.
