South East Region's Intercounties Championship

Discipline: Olympic Trap

Date: October 19th 2014

Venue: NCSC

Glorious sunshine with a fierce chilly wind which played havoc with the targets.

Good turnout of 10 squads for this, the last of this year Intercounties Championships.

The team event was a tie between Essex and Berkshire on 397/500.

A shoot off of one round decided the winning team with the three top shooters from the two counties competing.

The Berkshire team consisting of Keith Kilvington, Saul Pitaluga, Simon Clarke, Nicola Heron and Maciek Bilkiewicz emerged the Champions by just one target from the Essex team of Chris Wright, Dave Izzard, Phil Meyler, Dave Henshaw and John Haas.

Kent was in third place.

The Champion was Nathan Hales (Kent) with 91 after a shoot off with Dave Izzard (Essex)

The Lady Champion was Nicola Heron (Berkshire) with 77

The Junior Champion was Bradley Ballantyne (Kent) with 74

The Colt Champion was James Bradley-Day (Kent) with 61

The Veteran Champion was Cemal Seziner (Greater London) with 80

The day ran smoothly courtesy of the National Clay Shooting Centre and I hope everyone had nice time

My thanks go to Barry, Amy and the team at NCSC for organising this event on behalf of the South East Region
