48 competitors, including some having their first go at Helice we in attendance to shoot this 20 target competition. The weather was varied with some sunshine at times but mostly cloudy and then rain hit towards the end of the shoot.

There was a 3-way shoot-off for the overall title between Jo Watson-Hopkinson, Kevin Tyler and Charles Pomfret having each dropped just 1 target. Kevin went on to win the overall title as well as the Seniors. Charles took the Men's title and Jo won the ladies title.

There was also a shoot off for the Juniors between Jack Malthouse and Archie Tyler and after an epic 11 targets Archie made a 12th hit to take the title.

Paul Crumpton won the Veterans and Chris Potter the Masters.

In the team competition it was a close run with Sussex and Kent going into a shoot-off having beaten Greater London and Surrey by just 1 target. All the team took 2 extra targets with Sussex taking the win and team title for 2025.

Many thanks to all at Invicta for running another great shoot.
